STEP 1

Assess your church facility to make sure it is ready to bring in Visitors. Also, in Sept 1 you show members how to use their God given gifts effectively to bring people they know and people the don't know into your church. This will prepare you for “Back to Church Celebration”

STEP 2

This is all about getting your church ready with new and exciting ways to set up a Visitors' Center right within your church. You show your Visitor Ministry Team how to get ready for the biggest arrival of visitors you have ever seen! Your Hospitality Ministry, Greeters, and Ushers Ministries become highly effective in interacting with the many visitors that will come into your church. Get ready for “Back to Church Celebration”

Next, your Childrens Ministry will get ready to learn how to bring in other children with their parents and friends so that they will to “Back to Church Celebration” (continued next page))

Your Teen Ministry will start bringing their Teen friends to join in the fun of growing your church. They will be excited to bring their friends to “Back to Church Celebration”

And, all members, adults, Teens and Children learn Relational Evangelism to bring people they already know back to church. This will always be successful once the members learn Relational Evangelism. Everybody in your church will be ready for “Back to Church Celebration”.

STEP 3

Let's not leave out the community. Members. Learn how to invite many community members to come to your church.

You learn how to make your Outreach Ministry more effective.

You learn how to have the most effective Street Evangelism Ministry. Street Evangelism and out reach will draw many community people to your church.

STEP 4

You use Secular Events so that all the non-Christians will join in the fun at your church. Signage is great for bringing non-members into the church and for organization inside of the church. And that's that!

It is so easy to grow a church once you know how. We look forward to coaching you and mentoring you just how to do it. We will keep you on track until get all the Steps and all the help that you need to be successful.

Don't forget church growth is all about bring People to Jesus and growing the Body of Christ.
